

Hello! We at Conference Services is excited for your stay at Cornell University for the Transformative Consumer Research conference. In order to enhance your stay on campus, here is some important information.

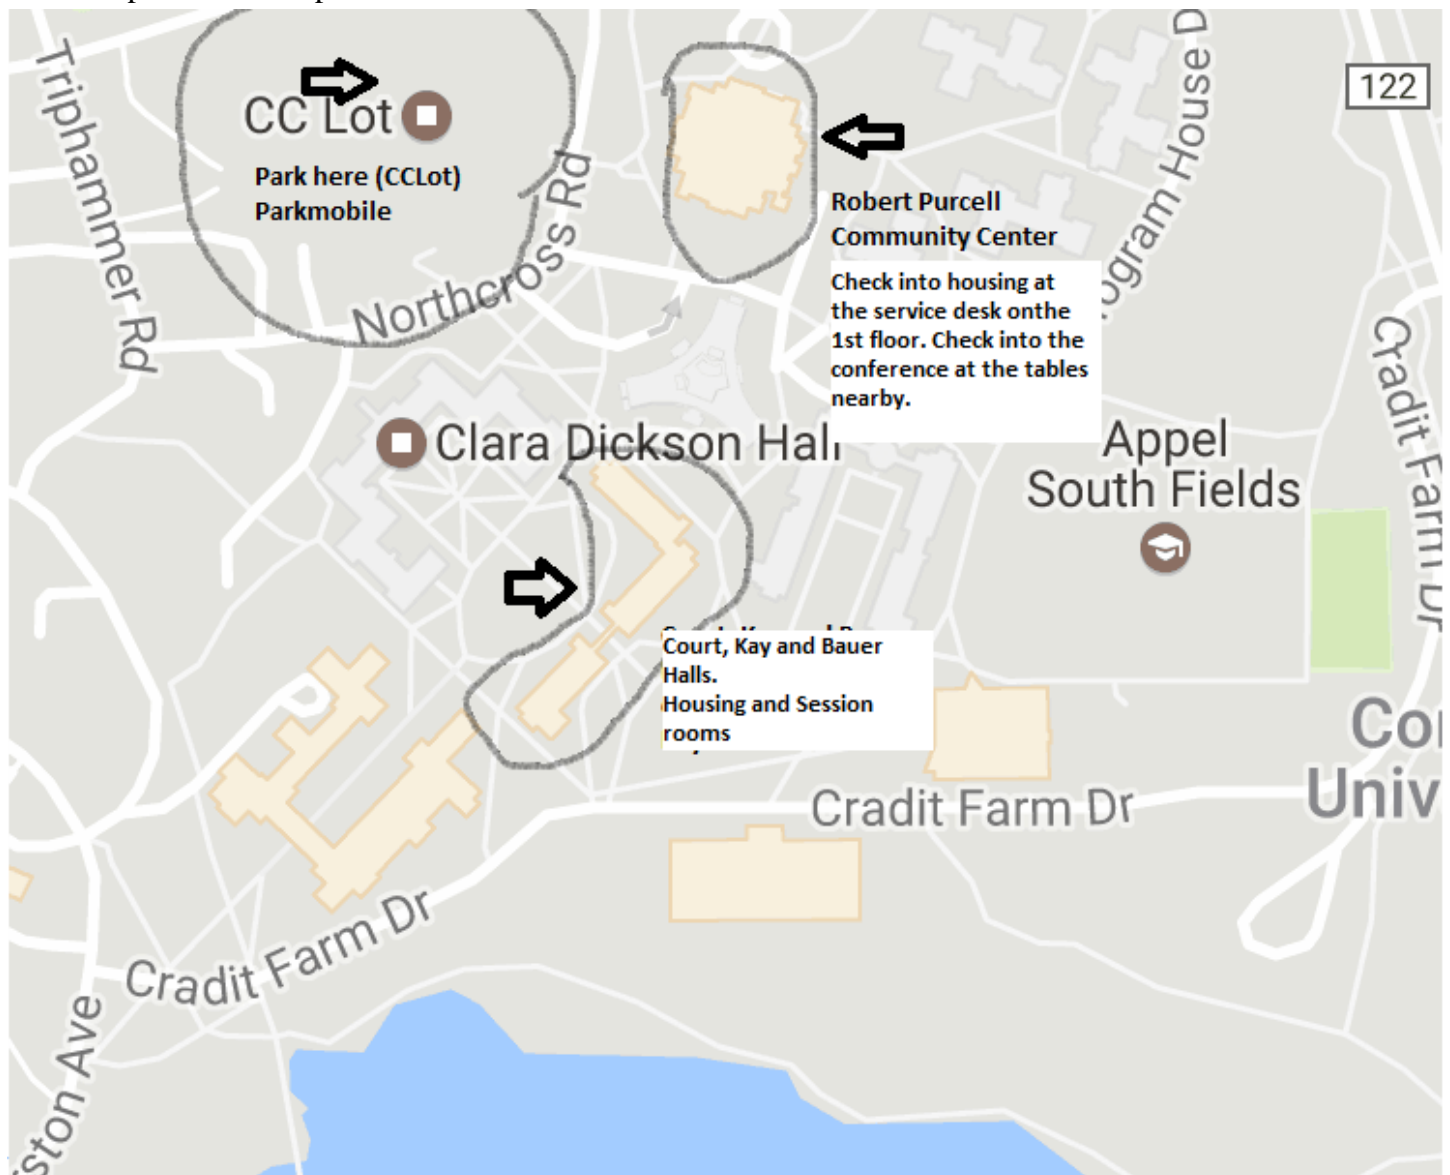

WHERE:

For the majority of you, check-in will be done between 2pm and 5pm on June 18, 2017 at the Robert Purcell service desk on North Campus, near the building where you will be staying. If you arrive after the service desk closes at 11pm, you may call the posted number which will be listed on all entryway doors, and a Summer Operations Associate will meet you to check you in.

An interactive campus Map can be found: <http://www.cornell.edu/about/maps/>

You can search for Robert Purcell Community Center and get GPS coordinates and driving directions.

PARKING:

Parking is available through Parkmobile, a virtual parking meter system on your smartphone. We encourage you to create your account before coming to campus. More info, links and maps of Parkmobile parking lots can be found here: <https://transportation.fs.cornell.edu/parking/campusparking/visitors/parkmobile.cfm>
Zone 4104 (CC Lot) is where you will find the most conference parking.

HOUSING:

When you arrive and check in, you will be given your keys and a door/elevator access card for Court, Kay and Bauer Halls. You may also ask the service desk any questions you may have, such as food options, building locations, etc. You can also check into the Conference at nearby tables.

For those of you staying additional nights, you will need to make your payment for those nights at check in, if you have not already paid.

For check out, you may simply drop your keys off as you leave at the Robert Purcell service center desk where you checked in. Conference Services staff are at the desk daily from 7am- 11pm to answer any questions you may have.

Your campus housing accommodations include your bed made fresh daily, fresh towels, face cloth, soap, shampoo, drinking glass. Fresh sheets – 3rd day of stay unless soiled. There are shared hallway bathrooms for each 3 bedrooms.

There is a small convenience store in Robert Purcell Community Center which will be open Monday – Friday from approx. 11am-5pm during your stay, and our staff at the Service Center can assist you with any forgotten toiletry item.

WIFI:

Guest Wifi is available via Eduroam, if you are part of a participating institution, or via the Cornell visitor network. Please note that you will need to access your email via a web browser while using the Cornell visitor network.
